I file these comments on April 22, 2011 about the sale of WMFE-TV to Daystar. As a WMFE and PBS viewer I am concerned about WMFE-TV's transaction to the Daystar network. I am worried that this merger will eliminate an unbiased network in the central Florida area. I am also worried that this will leave out a portion of the ethnic and religious diversity that is central Florida due to a Christian goal according to Daystar's website. This station reaches out to many people and provides them with excellent programming and information. Orlando is a city that continues to grow every day and it means a lot to this area if the network could stay here and continue to grow as well. WMFE-TV has had a long history of serving the central Florida community and I hope that WMFE-TV can consider another way to keep the station here in Orlando.
